13.4 The Scottish FA is authorised to request full disclosure of the identity of all of the shareholders of a member and details of all beneficial interests represented by any such shareholder and all members and other relevant persons under the jurisdiction of the Scottish FA will be required to meet all such requests without delay. Failure to do so will constitute a breach of these Articles and the Judicial Panel will have jurisdiction to deal with any such breach and to impose sanctions in relation to it.

28.1 A club shall take all such steps as are reasonably practicable to ensure the safety, good conduct and behaviour of its supporters on any ground. A club playing at its own ground or allowing its ground to be used for a match in which it is not participating shall also take all such steps as are reasonably practicable to ensure the safety, good conduct and behaviour of all spectators at that ground.

28.2 A recognised football body which is directly responsible for organising a match under its jurisdiction shall likewise take all such steps as are reasonably practicable to ensure the safety, good conduct and behaviour of spectators at such match.

28.3 Misbehaviour by spectators before, during or at the close of a match resulting from the failure of a club or recognised football body to take all reasonably practicable steps as aforesaid shall render that club or recognised football body liable to a fine or closure of ground or suspension or all of these penalties.

28.4 In the event of a report being made to the Scottish FA that the misbehaviour of spectators has had a material effect on the result of a match and such report being upheld, the Judicial Panel may declare the match and result void and order the match to be replayed on such ground and on such date and on such conditions as the Judicial Panel shall think proper and/or may impose such other penalties as the Judicial Panel shall think proper. Any such report shall be lodged with the Secretary in writing within 6 days of the day of the match and shall only be considered if made by the referee or a club participating in such match.

28.5 In the event of a match being abandoned due to field invasion by spectators the Judicial Panel shall have power:-

(a) to have the match replayed on such ground and on such date and on such conditions as the Judicial Panel shall think proper;

(b) to allow the result to stand; or

(c) declare the match void,

and additionally to impose such other penalties as the Judicial Panel shall think proper.

28.6 A club playing at its own ground or allowing its ground to be used for a match in which it is not participating must ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, (i) good order and security; (ii) that policies and procedures have been adopted and are implemented to prevent instances of Unacceptable Conduct; and (iii) that any instance of Unacceptable Conduct is effectively dealt with, all at its own ground, on the occasion of a match.

28.7 Each club must ensure, as far as is reasonably practicable, that its players, officials, supporters and any person exercising a function for or in connection with the club do not engage in Unacceptable Conduct at any club's ground on the occasion of a match. Any failure by a club to discharge a requirement to which it is subject by virtue of Article 28.6 and this Article 28.7 shall constitute a breach of these Articles.

28.8 In any proceedings in terms of these Articles against a club in which it is alleged that there has been a failure by the club to discharge a requirement to which it is subject by virtue of Articles 28.6 and 28.7, it shall be for the club concerned to prove that it was not reasonably practicable to do more than was in fact done or (as the case may be) there was no better practicable means than were in fact used to discharge such requirement.

28.9 Proceedings in terms of these Articles against a club in which it is alleged that there has been a failure by that club to discharge a requirement to which it is subject by virtue of Articles 28.6 and 28.7 may only be commenced where the Secretary has received from (i) the police; (ii) from the relevant match official or other match official; (iii) any representative of the Scottish FA attending the relevant match on behalf of the Scottish FA; and/or the other club which took part in the relevant match, a written complaint or other written communication which, in the opinion of the Scottish FA, provides grounds to believe that such requirement may not have been discharged. Upon determining that a breach of or failure to fulfil these Articles has been established, the Judicial Panel may:-

(a) give a warning as to future conduct;

(b) give a reprimand;

(c) impose a fine;

- (g) award the match (with such deemed score as it thinks appropriate) to a club;
 - (h) order the playing of a match or matches behind closed doors;
 - (i) order the closure of all or part of the club's ground for such period and for such purposes as it thinks appropriate;
 - (j) order the playing of the match or matches at such ground as it thinks appropriate;

 - (l) order a club, official, Team Official or other member of Team Staff or player to pay compensation to any club, player or person or party;

 - (o) order that the club concerned be debarred from registering players for such period as it thinks appropriate;
 - (p) order that any person or persons or group of persons be prohibited from attending at such match or matches for such period as it thinks appropriate;
 - (q) make such other direction, sanction or disposal not expressly provided for in these Articles, as it shall think appropriate including such other sanctions as are contained within the Judicial Panel Protocol; and/or
 - (r) make such orders to expenses as it thinks appropriate.
- 28.10 When imposing a direction, sanction or disposal, the Judicial Panel may apply such number or combination of the directions, sanctions or disposals provided for in Article 28.9 as it thinks appropriate, make such provision for time to comply with any one or more of the same as it thinks appropriate, may defer for such period or until such event as it shall think appropriate, the decision on or imposition of a sanction or sanctions and shall be entitled to suspend the effect of any such direction, sanction or disposal for such period and on such conditions as it thinks appropriate.
- 28.11 The expulsion of a club from the recognised football body shall not take effect unless and until it is sanctioned by a resolution passed at the appropriate meeting of the relevant recognised football body in accordance with its respective constitutions.
- 28.12 The provision of Articles 28.3 to 28.11 (both inclusive) shall apply in the case of any match played under the jurisdiction of the Scottish Football League. The provisions of Articles 28.3 to 28.11 (both inclusive) shall not apply in the case of any match played under the jurisdiction of the Scottish Premier League, unless the board of directors of the Scottish Premier League shall request the Board to invoke the powers granted to it under these Articles.

In the event that the Scottish Premier League and the Scottish Football League merge, then the position of the Scottish Premier League on the foregoing matters will be deemed to prevail.

Notwithstanding the above terms of Article 28.12, the Judicial Panel shall have jurisdiction in the case of an alleged or apparent breach of Articles 28.1 to 28.11 (both inclusive) arising as a result, directly or indirectly, of the actions or omissions of the Scottish Football League or the Scottish Premier League, as the case may be.

29. Programmes, Publicity, etc.

34. Registration Procedures

Clubs in full membership or associate membership of the Scottish FA or in membership of an Affiliated Association or an Affiliated National Association, as the case may be, shall comply with the requirements of the Registration Procedures and amendments thereto as shall be promulgated by the Board from time to time in connection with the registration of players, irrespective of status, under the jurisdiction of the Scottish FA. Failure to so comply will be deemed to be a breach of these Articles and may result in the Scottish FA refusing to register or cancelling the registration of the player in question, and/or the club being liable to such other penalties or conditions as the Judicial Panel may think proper.

35. Club Licensing

- 35.1 Clubs in full membership or associate membership of the Scottish FA or in membership of an Affiliated Association or an Affiliated National Association, as the case may be, shall comply with the requirements of the Club Licensing Procedures.

- 37.2 In addition to any right conferred on members by the Act, the Board shall, upon receiving a requisition in writing: (i) appealing against the suspension or expulsion of a member and signed by full members having not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all such members; or (ii) questioning an act or omission of the Board and signed by 10 or more full members of the Scottish FA, convene a General Meeting. - 39.2 If, on receipt of a proposal submitted in accordance with Article 39.1, the Board is of the opinion (acting reasonably) that the addition(s) and/or alteration(s) proposed to be made to these Articles and/or the Challenge Cup Competition Rules do(es) not take account of all additions and alterations which would be required to be made to these Articles and the Challenge Cup Competition Rules in consequence of the adoption of such proposal, the full member or the Director lodging such proposal shall be required to work in conjunction with the Secretary and his staff to notify the Board in writing of all such consequential additions and alterations within three weeks of being notified of the requirement so to do by the Secretary. A new Council shall thereafter be appointed in the manner provided in Article 51, and at every second Annual General Meeting, the Honorary Office-Bearers and the Office-Bearers shall be so elected or re-elected and the Council thereafter appointed for the ensuing two years.

57. Honorary Office-Bearers and Office-Bearers

57.1 Retiring Honorary Office-Bearers and retiring Office-Bearers shall be eligible for re-election unless disqualified in terms of any of these Articles or, in the case of Honorary Office-Bearers, they have held office as an Honorary Office-Bearer for a continuous period of 4 years, in which case they must stand down from office and shall not be eligible to stand for election again until a period of 2 years has elapsed since they so stood down.

The maximum continuous or aggregate period of time during which any individual can hold office as an Office-Bearer (in whichever of the positions he is elected to serve as detailed in Article 57) shall be 12 years, provided that upon the expiry of the term of office of the Second Vice-President elected on or around the date of adoption of these Articles such maximum continuous or aggregate period of time shall be reduced to 8 years and such reduced period shall apply to all Office-Bearers who take up office at the Annual General Meeting immediately following the expiry of the term of office of the Second Vice-President.

If, in the interval between 28th February and the date of the Annual General Meeting, an Office-Bearer intimates withdrawal of his application for election or re-election, as the case may be, or if any eventuality which would preclude his election or re-election has arisen, the Secretary shall proceed as instructed by the Board.
- 57.4 If, for any reason, the office of President or of First Vice-President becomes vacant, the Board either on its own or on the requisition of the members in accordance with the Act may convene expeditiously a General Meeting to elect a candidate to fill such vacant office. In the event that as a result of the application of this Article 57.4, a person elected to office as President or First Vice-President would, in order to meet the four-year limitation on the holding of such offices set out in Article 57.1, require to resign from any such office prior to the expiry of any two-year term which he was subsequently elected to serve in respect of such office, it is declared that such person will be entitled to remain in office until the expiry of such two-year term notwithstanding the provisions of Article 57.1 and as an exception to them. Any period of office served as a consequence of the invocation of this Article 57.4 shall therefore be disregarded when assessing the application of the limitation on the holding of the same offices within the Scottish FA, all as set out in Article 57.1.
- 57.5 Articles 48.2 and 48.4 shall not apply to the nomination or election of a candidate pursuant to Article 57.4. The nomination of any candidate for the vacated office of President or First Vice-President shall state the office to which such candidate seeks to be elected and shall be submitted by electronic communication or by recorded delivery letter to the Secretary at any time up to and including the date to be set by the Board for receipt of such nominations prior to the date of the convened General Meeting to fill such vacant office and the Secretary shall, within 7 days of his receipt, issue to the members entitled to receive notice of such a General Meeting the names of the candidates for office. Such Second Vice-President shall serve for a period of 2 years, in accordance with Article 56, following which he shall be re-elected. It shall not be competent for a new Second Vice-President to be elected at the Annual General Meeting at which the incumbent retires and so if the incumbent fails to gain sufficient votes to be re-elected or does not offer himself for re-election the post will cease to exist. No further Second Vice-President shall be elected or re-elected following the expiry of the term of office of the Second Vice-President elected at such Annual General Meeting ("the Expiry Date") and the provisions of these Articles relating to the office of the Second Vice-President shall cease to have effect from the Expiry Date, save for those provisions of these Articles relating to the nomination of candidates for the office of the Second Vice-President, which shall cease to have effect from such date as will ensure that no candidates are put forward for re-election or election as Second Vice-President on or following the Expiry Date. The provisions of this Article 58.1 are subject to the provisions of Article 58.3.
- 58.2 For the avoidance of doubt, all references to the Second Vice-President in these Articles shall be treated as having been deleted with effect from the Expiry Date, save for those references in Article 1.1 and this Article 58.
- 58.3 If, for any reason, the office of Second Vice-President becomes vacant, such vacant office shall not be filled and the Expiry Date for the purposes of these Articles shall be deemed to be the date on which the office became vacant.
- 59. Members of the Council
- 59.1 The retiring ordinary members of the Council, unless disqualified under these Articles, shall be eligible for re-election or re-appointment.
- 59.2 If, for any reason, a vacancy occurs amongst the members of the Council appointed in terms of Article 51, the Board may authorise that the vacancy be filled subject to the conditions prescribed for the nomination of such a member to serve on the Council and any person appointed to fill such vacancy shall hold office until the expiry of the period to which the member of Council so replaced was subject.

Any penalty imposed by the Judicial Panel upon a club may include the refusal to register for such club any player whom it considers to have been so induced. Any infringement of this Article 80.3 shall render the player concerned and any official, Team Official or other member of Team Staff, player, or other person who makes such communication or approach liable to such penalties by way of fine, suspension, expulsion or otherwise as the Judicial Panel may think proper.
- 80.4 The provisions of Articles 80.1, 80.2 and 80.3 shall not apply in the case of any infringement thereof relating to a club in membership of the Scottish Premier League unless the board of directors of the Scottish Premier League shall request the Judicial Panel to invoke the powers granted to it under these Articles.
- 80.5 The provisions of Articles 80.1, 80.2 and 80.3 shall not apply in the case of any infringement thereof relating to a club in membership of the Scottish Football League unless the board of the Scottish Football League shall request the Board to invoke the powers granted to it under the Articles.
- 80.6 No member or person instructed by such member shall either directly or indirectly induce or attempt to induce any manager, coach, trainer or other person involved in the training or management of the team of another member to terminate a contract of employment with that other member (whether or not by breach of contract) or either directly or indirectly approach any manager, coach, trainer or other person, as aforesaid, with a view to offering employment without first obtaining the consent in writing of that other member. Members failing to comply with the foregoing shall be liable to a censure, to a fine, to a suspension, to an expulsion, to a combination of these penalties or such other penalty or sanction as the Judicial Panel considers appropriate in order to deal justly with the case in question.

81. Reversion of Transfer of Registration Rights

- 81.1 Except as aftermentioned, if any club is expelled, resigns, retires or ceases for whatever reason to be a member of the Scottish FA, the registrations of the players who are registered with the Scottish FA by such club, and any entitlements therefrom, shall continue to be held by the Scottish FA, which shall where appropriate arrange the transfers of or compensation fees for all such registrations. The monies received in respect thereof shall belong to the Scottish FA, but the Board shall have the power to grant to such club if its conduct has been satisfactory a sum not exceeding two-thirds of the monies received.
- 81.2 In the event that the cessation of the membership of a club has resulted from an insolvency event relating to the club and the insolvency practitioner has intimated to the Scottish FA the resignation of the club in terms of these Articles, then the Board may grant to such insolvency practitioner the monies received in terms of Article 81.1 after deduction therefrom of a sum equal to any debts owed by the club to the Scottish FA or to any body of which the Scottish FA is in membership or to any club or recognised football body.
- 81.3 The provisions of Articles 81.1 and 81.2 are subject to the rights of the Scottish Football League where a club in membership of the Scottish Football League is expelled, resigns, retires or ceases for whatever reason to be a member of the Scottish Football League prior to resigning, retiring or ceasing to be a member of the Scottish FA.

A member or an associated person may not take a Dispute to a court of law except with the prior approval of the Board. For the avoidance of doubt, this Article 99.2 does not prevent a member or associated person from raising proceedings for time bar purposes, subject to such proceedings being sisted at the earliest opportunity for resolution in accordance with this Article 99.

99.3 The submission of a Dispute to arbitration by a member or associated person ("the Referring Party") shall be lodged in writing by delivery to the Secretary and to the other party or parties to the Dispute of a notice to refer to arbitration (a "Notice to Refer"), which notice shall include (i) the nature and a brief description of the dispute and of the parties involved; (ii) details of where and when the dispute has arisen; (iii) the nature of the redress which is sought; and (iv) the names and addresses of the parties to the contract (including, where appropriate, the addresses which the parties have specified for the giving of notices). The last date on which the Notice to Refer is served on the other parties and the Secretary shall be deemed to be the date on which the arbitral proceedings are commenced.

99.4 Where a Dispute has been referred to arbitration, each such member or any associated person involved in the Dispute shall submit to the jurisdiction of the Tribunal and shall adhere to the following provisions in this Article 99.

99.5 The Scottish FA shall maintain a list of qualified candidates ("the Tribunal Candidate List") to sit as arbitrators in tribunals to determine Disputes referred in accordance with this Article 99. If so, each Party shall nominate an individual from the Tribunal Candidate List as its arbitrator, and the two arbitrators so appointed shall appoint a third arbitrator who shall be or has been a solicitor or advocate of not less than 10 years’ standing and who shall act as chairman of the Tribunal (“the Tribunal Chairman”);
 - (c) if either Party fails to nominate an arbitrator within 14 days of receiving the Secretary’s Notice, such arbitrator(s) shall be appointed from the Tribunal Candidate List by the Secretary, or his nominee. In such circumstances, the Secretary or his nominee shall have the power in his sole discretion to appoint a single arbitrator or a panel of three arbitrators;
 - (d) if the two arbitrators nominated by the Parties fail to agree upon the appointment of a third arbitrator within 14 days of the appointment of the second arbitrator, the third arbitrator shall be appointed by the President of The Law Society of Scotland at the written request of either Party or the Secretary. The Party so requesting shall initially bear the nomination fee, but the Tribunal shall in its sole discretion have the power to order that the nomination fee is paid or repaid by any Party;
 - (e) the Parties may agree to appoint jointly a single arbitrator from the Tribunal Candidate List. If so, the Parties shall nominate such single arbitrator within 14 days of receiving the Secretary’s Notice; failing which the single arbitrator shall be appointed from the Tribunal Candidate List by the Secretary;
 - (f) if any arbitrator appointed by a Party, the Secretary, or the President of The Law Society of Scotland shall die, refuse to act or become incapacitated from acting prior to the making of an award, a further arbitrator shall be appointed to replace him in the same manner as such original arbitrator was appointed. The provisions of Article 99.6(c) shall apply to a replacement appointment by a Party with notice of the death, refusal or incapacity of the original arbitrator being substituted for the Secretary’s Notice; and
 - (g) with reference to Schedule 1 of the Arbitration (Scotland) Act 2010, the default rules of the Scottish Arbitration Rules shall be modified or disapplied, so as to comply with the express rules of this Article 99. - 99.7 As soon as practicable after it has been convened the Tribunal may convene a meeting with the Parties or their representatives.

- 99.8 The Tribunal may adopt such procedures as it considers appropriate for the resolution of the Dispute to ensure its just, expeditious, economic, and final determination and may proceed by way of oral hearing or by written submission and by such manner of evidence as it considers appropriate. Any award or procedural decision of the Tribunal shall if necessary be made by a majority and, in the event that no majority may be formed, the Tribunal Chairman shall make his determination as if he were a sole arbitrator.
- 99.9 The Tribunal may make interim awards or part awards on different issues at different times.
- 99.10 If, before the award is made, the Parties agree on a settlement of the Dispute, the Tribunal shall either issue an order for termination of the reference to arbitration or, if requested by both Parties and accepted by the Tribunal, record the settlement in the form of an award on joint consent, and in such case the award shall be treated as an Arbitral award. The Tribunal shall then be discharged and the reference to arbitration concluded subject to payment by the Parties of any outstanding fees and expenses of the Tribunal.
- 99.11 The Tribunal shall have the power to assess and grant an award and/or damages, and interest thereon, and make such other order as it deems appropriate in its reasonable discretion.
- 99.12 The Tribunal shall have the power to make such order against one or more of the Parties as it considers appropriate as to the costs of the arbitration, which shall include the fees and expenses of the arbitrators and of any hearings (including any administrative costs) and the Parties’ expenses and outlays of the Scottish FA (which shall follow the direction of the Tribunal Chairman and shall be as agreed by the Parties and the Scottish FA or, failing such agreement, as determined by means of taxation, on the application of the Parties or the Scottish FA to the auditor of the sheriff court at Glasgow and the Parties and the Scottish FA agree that the Tribunal shall have the power to order a Party to pay the costs of the taxation) in the arbitration. For the avoidance of doubt, the whole costs, expenses and outlays of the arbitration, including the Tribunal’s fees and outlays and any reasonable fees and outlays incurred by the Scottish FA, shall be borne by the Parties.
- 99.13 In the event of default by either Party in respect of any procedural order of the Tribunal, the Tribunal shall have power:-
- (a) to debar that Party from further participation in the arbitration; and/or
 - (b) to proceed with the arbitration and deliver its award.
- 99.14 The law governing the arbitration shall be the law of Scotland. The seat of the arbitration shall be Scotland.
- 99.15 None of the Tribunal, the Tribunal’s clerk (if any), the Secretary, nor the Scottish FA shall be liable to any Party for any act or omission in connection with any arbitration conducted under this Article 99, unless the act or omission is in bad faith, and any employee or agent of the Scottish FA is similarly protected from any such liability.

- 99.16 Any Dispute decided under the procedure referred to in this Article 99 shall be final and binding on the Parties. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties to any arbitration established pursuant to this Article 99 agree to renounce their respective rights of appeal, save in respect of the mandatory provisions of the Arbitration (Scotland) Act 2010 in respect of challenging awards, or as otherwise expressly provided in this Article 99.
